GO FORTH AND Set the World ON FIRE

ANNUAL REPORT 2018-2019

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous
Teach me to serve as you deserve
To give and not to count the cost
To fight and not to heed the wounds
To labor and not to seek to rest
To give of myself and not ask for reward
Except in the reward that I am doing your will.
St. Ignatius of Loyola, pray for us.

Schoolwide Learning Expectations

St. Ignatius Parish School students receive an education founded in Five Core Values derived from our mission and philosophy statements and signify what a St. Ignatius student knows, understands, values, and practices.

Mission

St. Ignatius Parish School is a faith community grounded in Jesuit principles which cultivate excellence in mind, body, and spirit, sending forth students for and with others.

Principal
St. Ignatius Parish School

A Message from our Principal

I was raised Catholic by two very faith-filled people, Jack and Carol Kochis. Back in Parma, Ohio, during the 60's and 70's, they sent three children to Catholic elementary school. From Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, our entire family grandparents, great-grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins.... all raised in the faith. Our Church was our community.

In 1987 Father Dare Morgan hired me as the fifth grade teacher. Well, I can assure you my family could not have been more pleased. Hired at a Catholic School. YES! Now, who are these Jesuits?

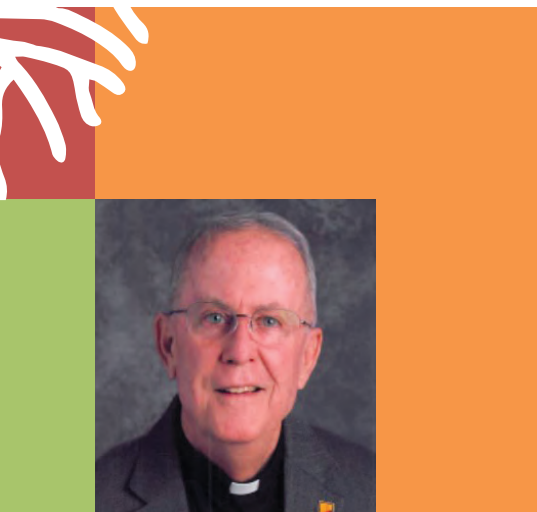

To be honest, it has taken me years and continued growth as a teacher, administrator, parishioner, parent, and co-worker, to have a better understanding of what it truly means to be part of a Catholic community that is Jesuit. A Jesuit community of education that forms the foundation that inspires our children to "Go Forth and Set the World on Fire!"

When parents send their children to St. Ignatius Parish School, they can expect to find a strong sense of community where relationships are cultivated and nurtured. Children are taught to be intellectually competent, think critically and compassionately, and to be leaders who strive to make our world a better place. At our Jesuit school, students are provided the opportunity to be problem solvers while seeing God in all things that are empowered to be difference-makers.

At St. Ignatius Parish School we are blessed that the Jesuit Province continues to provide our Jesuit priests and Father Mike Moynahan who leads our parish and school community. Along with our Jesuit priests, our faculty and staff, in partnership with our school families we are deeply engaged together in forming these young souls. The 2018-19 school year brought many blessings but none more fulfilling, then living and breathing with 403 students who brightened our days and were a living witness to the beautiful gifts that God presents to each of us and gives us so much hope for our future Church.

Blessings and with much gratitude,
Patty

A Message from our Pastor

This year marks both an ending and anticipation for a new beginning for our St. Ignatius Parish School students. The 2019/20 school year will begin in a brand new school. While the place where your sons and daughters will be educated will change, what they are being taught hasn't. They are part of one of the nine (9) Jesuit elementary schools in the Jesuit West Province.

The Jesuit education that they will receive seeks to develop the whole student—intellectually, morally, and spiritually. Some of the values they will learn are social and environmental justice, interreligious understanding and service to others, especially the poor and socially marginalized.

A Jesuit education prepares students for lifelong learning. It explores the interface between faith and culture. It recognizes that each discipline reveals something of the sacred. It pays special attention to values, ethical issues and the development of moral character. It develops responsible citizens who are sensitive to the needs of our times. It maintains an optimistic view of human nature and its possibilities. It inspires graduates to change society and the world for the better.

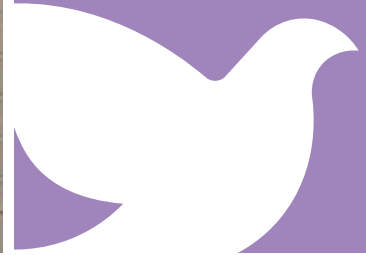

As a former General of the Jesuits pointed out, “A Jesuit education involves the mind, the heart, and the hand. The mind stands for knowledge that leads to wisdom and the ability to make wise, life-giving decisions. The heart represents growth in compassion—the student's ability to enter into both the joy and suffering of his brothers and sisters in the world. The hand signifies service that takes many shapes and forms and reflects St. Ignatius' belief that love expresses itself more in deeds than in words.”

At St. Ignatius Parish School, we believe that we are educating young men and women that our city, our state, our country, and our world needs most. Thank you for letting us partner with you in educating our hope for the future.

“He who carries God in his heart bears heaven with him wherever he goes.”

ST. IGNATIUS STUDENTS ARE

Religious

SI Students are faith-filled in their beliefs and hopeful for the future.

“I went to the 2nd Grade to be inspired by the kids’ enthusiasm and wonderful questions. I shared with the 6th Grade new avenues of prayer in which they enter so easily and which inspired me. I was moved by the generosity of the 8th Grade in how they led and made concrete the charism of St. Ignatius of Loyola in our local parish and community and among the youngest members of SI school. There is so much to be grateful for!”

FR. DAVE AYOTTE, S.J.

According to St. Ignatius, the purpose of a Jesuit education is “improvement in living and learning for the greater glory of God and the common good.”

Children have a special ability to be present to the mystery of God and to have an open heart, mind, and spirit to develop a relationship with God. Our students practiced their Catholic faith in all they did. Students were given many opportunities to bring the Gospel teachings to our community; classes led school Masses, students acted as altar servers and lectors at weekend Masses throughout the year, as well as performed many hours of community service. They were also guided by a class assigned priest who regularly visited and supported the religious growth of students.

REASONS IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY APPEALS TO CHILDREN:

1. Children can appreciate that God is in everything.
2. Children find comfort in knowing God is always with us.
3. Children embrace imaginative prayer. Students are invited to enter into scenes from the Gospels.
4. Children want to talk to trusted friends. God loves us and wants to be our friend.
5. Children like that God has a special mission for each one of us. God loves you as you are and wants you to be the best possible you.
6. Children can practice gratitude. In understanding God's love we can only feel great love and gratitude.

ST. IGNATIUS STUDENTS ARE Loving

SI Students are compassionate towards others, near and far, especially the less fortunate: and loving by their just actions and forgiving words.

"I like having a big buddy because she's really, really good at hide and go seek tag with me."

KENNEDY SUTER (Class of 2026)

At our core, our community is guided by God's love. He invites us to walk alongside Him and learn from our teachers and companions as we journey together through life. He also asks us to grow and look beyond ourselves to be understanding, accepting, and generous with others.

“Since the object of our love is infinite, we can always love more and more perfectly.”

ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

“Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.” (Ephesians 5:1,2).

With the guidance of this infinite love, our school community gave back in many ways. Our Magis Club consisted of 60 third through eighth graders that met during lunch and after school to make blankets for Project Linus, sang Christmas carols at Shriners Hospital, made thank you cards for firefighters, police officers, and teachers, as well as get-well cards for children in hospitals.

Upper grade students provided love and support to the younger students by being partnered with their “buddies”. TKers were paired with a fifth grade student and that partnership will last until they graduate. Upper classmates and their buddies attended school masses together, spent class time working on projects, and went on various field trips. This bond lasts beyond elementary school.

“As the Chair of the Magis Club, I am grateful to work alongside with such helpful, good-hearted and kind kids. The best part of Magis is seeing how much love our children have for others. They give and sacrifice their time to do something special for those in our community; whether it’s singing to sick children during the holidays or making blankets for those in need during the winter. The kids in Magis Club are learning at a young age how to give back and experience the joy in doing so. I am blessed to be a part of this amazing group!”

ST. IGNATIUS STUDENTS ARE Open to Growth

SI Students are learned, finding God in all things; and wise in the ways they use their learning for the common good.

“The 8th grade retreats and my education at St. Ignatius inspired me to go and help the world in any way I can.”

JULIA PORTER (Class of 2019)

A Jesuit education encourages students to be curious about everything, active in their engagement with the world, and changing what they can for the better. Classroom lessons are reinforced with special field trips to actually experience the subject.

In Lower Science, the first grade learned about plants at The California State Fair Farm, second grade explored the Biological Sciences department at Sac State, third grade reached for the stars at the The Powerhouse Planetarium, and fourth grade went to a local park to identify trees.

Our individual classes also had special experiences to encourage growth and knowledge. The third grade class spent the day living as a pioneer student at the Rhoad's School built in 1872. In fourth grade the Gold Rush lesson was a living history field trip campout overnight in Coloma. Fifth grade spent the day at the Exploratorium in San Francisco bringing many science concepts to life. Sixth grade went to Sly Park for the week for team building, outdoor adventures, and many opportunities for personal growth. Seventh grade spent three days at the Marin Headlands on the coast for hands-on science and learning experiences. Finally, eighth grade students attended two retreats which helped them to further their relationship with God, their classmates, and themselves.

"Field trips are an integral part of the Science curriculum. Each experience solidifies learning and deepens and enhances important academic concepts. Field trips are one of the best tools to provide every student with real world experiences. Each field trip provides the connection from classroom curriculum to the outside world."

LISA SCHNEIDER

ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

The 8th Grade Arrupe Project culminates our students’ Ignatian education. The youngest students of St. Ignatius Parish School are taught to understand that loving one another extends beyond the classroom. By the time they graduate, the SI student has acquired considerable knowledge of the many needs of local, national, and global communities. They recognize their potential to act and are committed to live as a person for and with others.

Intellectually Competent

SI Students develop many intellectual skills and understandings that cut across and go beyond the academic requirements for high school.

“There is something special about a Jesuit education — it is like no other. One of the most important aspects to the Jesuit education is the focus on caring and educating the whole person. The teachers and spiritual leaders at St. Ignatius Parish School are dialed-in to the core of Jesuit teaching. They support the whole child, encourage the pursuit of the magis (or more), and foster an environment that creates men and women for others.”

ELISABETH WHITE
(Andrew, Class of 2027; Elise and Emma, Class of 2025)

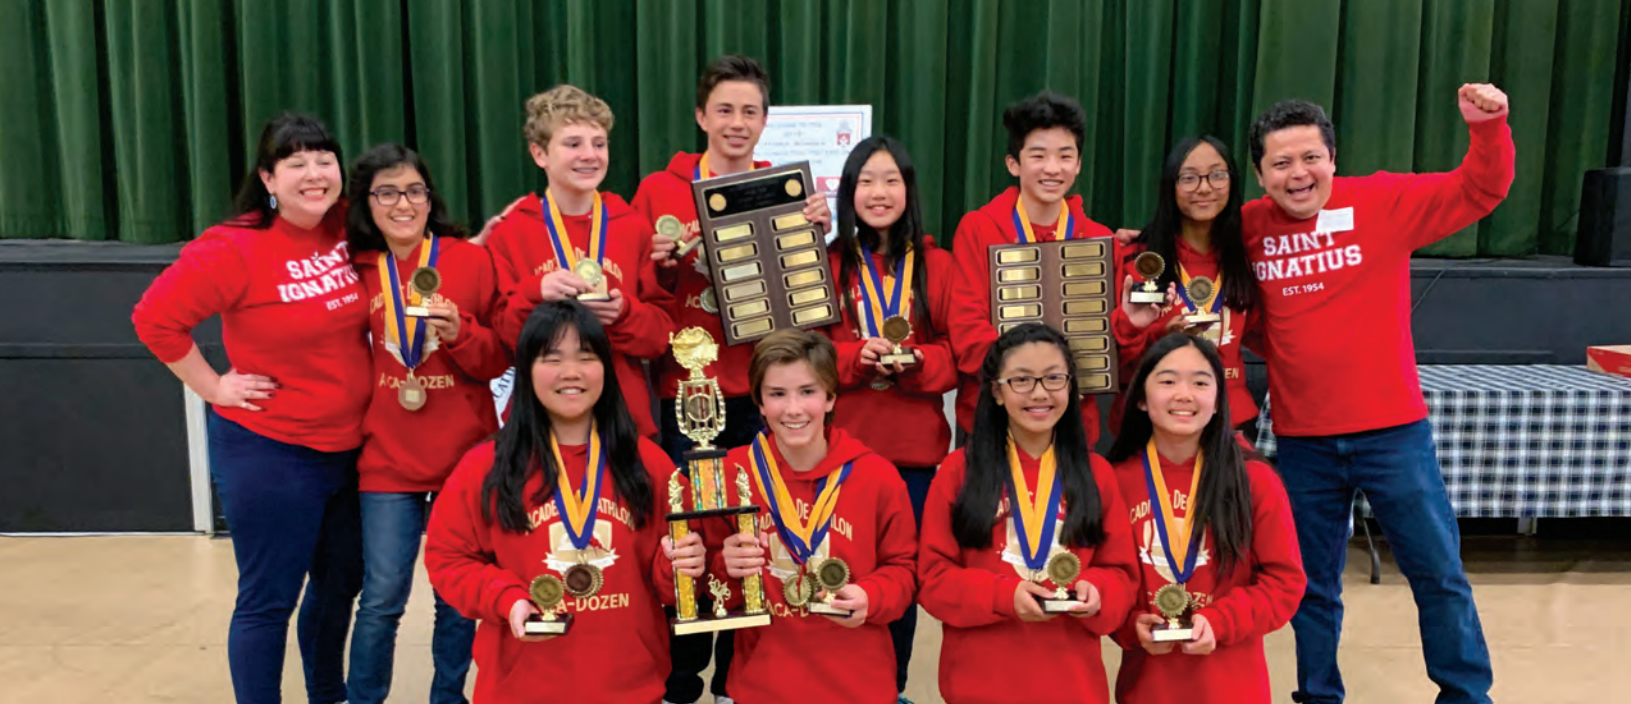

Commitment to academic excellence, is at the heart of our curriculum. The Jesuit motto is Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam (For the Greater Glory of God). As a Jesuit school we seek to uphold the highest standards, promote excellence and develop habits of intellectual inquiry and a disposition towards life-long learning.

These goals are encouraged by a resource program to support parents, teachers, and students by understanding a student's individual learning style and provide them with academic assistance.

“It is very rewarding to be part of a team along with parents and teachers in supporting students in understanding their academic strengths and how they learn best so that they can become confident learners.”

ACADECA 2019 State Champions

St. Ignatius Parish School triumphed at the California State Academic Junior High Decathlon. The 2019 State Champions bested close to 700 Catholic schools from California, Nevada and Colorado.

This was the 12th year in a row St. Ignatius Parish School has triumphed at the local competition earning the right to represent the Diocese of Sacramento at the state competition.

On Saturday April 6, the SI Acadeca Team competed against the ten California Catholic schools that had each prevailed at their Diocese Academic Decathlon competitions at St. Pius School in Redwood City.

The St. Ignatius Academic Decathlon team represents a broad spectrum of the school's student body. In addition to their full school academic schedule, they are student council members, members on numerous school and club athletic teams, play piano, altar serve, and are highly involved with various service organizations. These students were able to balance their time studying on weekends, during their lunch recess, in the evenings, and on holidays. Their coaches and parents rearranged their own schedules to be available to support them along the way.

“The sincere and tireless dedication of these students never ceases to impress me. The students’ ability to collaborate with, support, and help one another is a testament to the success of the team, and truly embodies the Ignatian theme of men and women for others.”

Athletics

Jesuits have long used the Latin dictum, “mens sana in corpore sano” (a healthy mind in a healthy body) to demonstrate the important connection between the mind and the body, the classroom and the field.

“St. Ignatius Athletics develops young student athletes into men and women for others by striving to create a competitive environment that teaches good sportsmanship, discipline, and leadership while strengthening the whole person. Working the mind and body on the court, student athletes are able to learn humility, compassion, and teamwork.”

KIT COYLE CANCELLA '01
Girls Varsity Basketball Coach

Extra curricular activity is an integral part of the total education and growth experience at St. Ignatius. Throughout the year students participated in programs such as the Catholic Schools Band, Art Club, Missoula Children's Theatre, Chess Club, IntelliBricks, as well as being members of our twenty four interscholastic sports teams.

Student-athletes, coaches, and parents are called upon to work together in a true spirit of sportsmanship to assist in creating an environment in which Ignatian values can be revealed, tested, and proven relevant both to participants and the entire school community.

Our goal is that through participation in athletics students will mature physically, emotionally, socially, and spiritually. They will learn to take responsibility for personal growth by developing loyalty, pride, integrity, and commitment.

SI's Big Build

At St. Ignatius Parish School our students are benefiting from an exemplary education that will help shape their values, strengthen their character, and provide the foundation needed for high school, college, and beyond.

This year we patiently watched our new school building being built. The new facility will provide our teachers and staff with the modern tools to educate our children. The new classrooms will include state-of-the-art science, math, and computer labs. Both indoor and outdoor gathering spaces will accommodate a variety of classwork, as well as special events, celebrations, and meetings. The 2019/20 academic year will begin a new era at St. Ignatius Parish School as we move into this new facility.

“Our St. Ignatius village is a well-diversified group and when we look at our progress, we marvel in the togetherness and the selflessness of all those involved. As a private organization, we did not receive any government subsidy or tax incentives. We did this by ourselves for ourselves! We accomplished our goals as a community, a strong, prideful and certainly blessed community.”
